

A young girl with dark hair and bangs is sitting in a wheelchair, smiling broadly. She is wearing a grey t-shirt and a black safety harness. In the foreground, a person's hands are visible, blowing orange liquid into a stream of bubbles. The background is a lush green park with trees and sunlight filtering through the leaves. There are several bubbles floating in the air. In the bottom right corner, there are three blue decorative icons: a small diamond, a star, and a heart.

Weil jeder glückliche Tag zählt.
